Tentative Date : 27 May 2020

Location: on the air 146.835

We will be holding an on the air meeting and disusing field day for this year and what frequencies we will be using for our special event station in September so I can get it posted in QST. We hope to hear you all there. At this time it looks like we will be doing on the air meetings for a while so hope everyone can make them and hoping we can get back to regular meeting soon.
